ALL SORTS.

—Mansey Styles is in town from Truckee.

—Judge Cary and wife have gone to the Lake.

—Tom Clarke has gone to Rubicon Springs.

—B. N. Lowe is in this city on mining business.

—Ex-Governor Kinkaid is able to be on the street.

—The Black murder trial went to the jury last night.

—Chas. Kelly has come down 10 per cent. on all glass ware.

—John Dennis and Geo. Tyrrell returned from Rubicon last night.

—“Old Buck” of Dayton brought the Sheriff of Lyon Co., to Carson on business.

—District Fair Directors are requested to meet this evening at 7:30 at the Secretary's office.

—Mrs. Jennie Fisher has returned from her pleasure trip and is now at her post in the State Library.

—Herb. Lindsay has mountain fever, and not typhoid, as was reported. He was somewhat better yesterday.

—A. E. Toback agent for J. Dewing & Co., was in the city yesterday canvassing for picturesque California.

—Geo. Thaxter brought back some new ideas regarding soda water from the East, and if you want to know what they are, call at the drug store.

—The Sacramento State Fair begins on the 6th of Sept. and ends on the 15th. The Reno State Fair begins on the 17th and ends on the 22nd of Sept.

—A few weeks ago we heard of such betting in New York as 2 to 1 on Cleveland. Now Republicans are offering slight odds on Harrison. Things are swinging around a little.

—Malarial poisons can be entirely removed from the system by the use of Ayer's Ague Cure. This remedy contains a specific, in the form of a vegetable product, used in no other Ague preparation. Warranted.

—D. Black who used to be a jeweler on the Comstock went to San Francisco and started a glove factory. He advertised his goods and now employs 80 hands. A Cohn is the sole agent for his gloves in this city.

—Scrofula in the blood, corrupts and contaminates every tissue and fibre in the whole body; but whether appearing in the form of swellings, erysipelas or running sores, the malignant poisons of this disease are completely eradicated by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

—The Resolutes of this city say that they are ready to play the Amateurs a match at any time or place for from $100 to $1,000 a side.—Enterprise.

On the return of George Cowing from his camping trip, the Comstockers will be entertained, and for the full thousand if they desire.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Syrup of Figs

A SOLID CONCERN.

THE FAMOUS ORIGINAL LITTLE LOUISIANA COMPANY.

More Testimony as to Its Honesty and Solidity—Lucky People Who Won in the Last Drawing—Their Names and the Amounts Received in Coin.

[From the Daily S. F. Report.]

The Original Little Louisiana Lottery Company still keeps up its reputation for honest dealing and prompt payment of the prizes won at the regular monthly drawings. San Francisco people were again very fortunate at the drawing of August 7, 1888, and the numerous holders of the winning tickets have added their testimony to that of hundreds of others as to the solidity of the company. It has been previously stated in these columns that it is the custom of the Original Little Louisiana company to obtain from holders of the principal prizes affidavits that they held the identical tickets drawing the same, and that they received the amounts won in United States gold coin. These affidavits, which are upon neatly printed blanks, are filled in with the name and residence of the winner, the sum of money received, the number of ticket and the ticket itself is pasted upon the bottom of the paper. The bona fide signature of the winner is attached, and all is sworn to before a Notary Public and duly certified to. In this way there can be no mistake and certainly no falsification. The affidavits are filed, those of each drawing being kept in separate files, and they are carefully preserved at the office of the company for reference, and to show to any skeptical person that everything which the company has undertaken is honestly carried out to the letter.

RECENT LUCKY WINNERS.

And now as to some of the lucky winners in the drawing of the Original Little Louisiana Company, held August 7th. The Daily Report knows that they are all modest people and are somewhat reticent about having their suddenly acquired wealth paraded before the public. But the good name of the Original Little Louisiana Company must again be certified to and it cannot be done in any better way than in stating who were the actual winners of the prizes. First upon the list is F. M. Perata, who keeps the Six-Mile House, on the San Bruno road, a noted caravansary. He is the son of that well known citizen and California Pioneer, M. Perata, who resides at the North-west corner of Union and Dupont streets. F. M. Perata bought a large number of tickets for the use of his friends, and after distributing the same, he had four small tickets left. These he also offered to an acquaintance, but, oh, no! the man did not believe in the honesty of the thing, and said he would not throw away the small sum of 25 cents each on the tickets.

PERATA WINS $3750.

“Very well,” said Mr. Perata, “I’ll keep the tickets myself and see what they will do for me.” So he put them into his vest-pocket and then forgot all about them. About ten days after the drawing of August 7, 1888, Mr. Perata happened to trust his thumb and forefinger into his vest pocket. He felt the tickets and then remembered all about the drawing. “Of course I haven’t won anything,” said he, “but I’ll just have the satisfaction of looking over the winning numbers printed in my Daily Report.” Mr. Perata did not have to look far. His non-expectant eye caught No. 3894. He held a half ticket calling for that number. He cried with glee. He had won the snug sum of $3,750. Mr. Perata, it may be added, promptly received his money from the company and put his name down upon an affidavit to that effect.

AND STILL THEY COME.

C. H. Gobriel, of 313 Stockton street is another man made happy by the bounty of the Original Little Louisiana Company. He held whole ticket No. 84,769 and drew $625. Still another, H. G. Hanley, a clerk in Wells, Fargo & Co's Bank in this city, held one half of ticket No. 53,283, and drew $625. George Weiman of 622 Merchant street testifies to the fact that he held whole ticket number 83,995 and drew $230. Mr. Zimmerman of Butchertown held whole ticket No. 87,440, which won $125. But the Daily Report is forgetting about the ladies. They certainly have as much right to draw prizes—matrimonial and otherwise—as the men. But the ladies had been very fortunate in the previous drawing, and it seemed to be the men's turn this time. However, Mrs. Carlina Lind of 14 Salina place, held ticket No. 91,825, which drew $125; Mrs. Miner of Portland, Or., held ticket No. 96,476, for which she received $125; Mrs. Mand L. Crother of San Buenaventura held ticket No. 70,628, which won $62 50. D. Mooney of the United States Shipping Commissioner's office held one-half of the ticket No. 79,118, which won $62 50. But the Daily Report might go on and fill up another column with the name of these fortunate winners. Enough have been given, however, to satisfy all the skeptical that the Original Little Louisiana Company is a solid and permanent concern, which keeps faith with its patrons and its deeds speak louder than words.

Funeral of Miss May Lampman.

Yesterday afternoon Miss May Lampman, whose sad death was chronicled yesterday, was buried from her late residence. The dead girl lay in her coffin under a mass of flowers, and the floral tributes were so numerous that they could not all be placed on the coffin.

Rev. VanDewater conducted the service, and his remarks were touching and appropriate, bringing tears to the eyes of the listeners.

A long line of carriages followed her to the grave, in fact it was the longest funeral witnessed in this city for years. The pall bearers were Curtis Wright, Bert Gee, Leslie Wright, Harry Thaxter, E. F. Cheffins and Percy Parkinson.

Shooting in Chinatown.

Night before last a Chinaman named Ah Yuen asked another Chinaman to lend him some money and was refused. He then took the refuser to the door by the collar and putting a pistol to his stomach let her go, the ball passing clear through him just above the left hip and hitting another Chinaman in the leg. Neither were seriously wounded. The shotist was caught.
